

of John Bond of Beverly, 16 April 1694. On 14 August 1699 she, now "Amy Bond alias Hascoll," was appointed guardian of the three children and presented her account of administration. Although the inventory does not survive, the administrator's account shows real estate of 146 pounds and personal estate of 73 pounds, 4 shillings...Amy Hascoll signed the account with the mark "A". By quitclaim dated 15 May 1710 "Joseph Pride who married Eliza dau. of John Bond. . . & Isaac Sawyer who married Martha Bond . . . for 24 pounds and 6/8 paid by our brother Edward Bond. . . do discharge our Mother Amee Bond alias Hascoll" (Rudy 1983, p. 19-20).

John and Emma's children, recorded at Beverly, were:

1. Elizabeth Bond b. 23 February 1683/4, Beverly, Mass.; m. Joseph Pride 17 December 1702/3.
2. Martha Bond b. 25 August 1686, Beverly, Mass.; m. at Gloucester, Mass. 19 March 1705/6 Isaac Sawyer. Had the following children b. at Gloucester, Essex Co., MA (IGI):
 - a. Isaac b. 22 June 1707
 - b. Edward b. 5 April 1709
 - c. Thomas b. 12 Oct. 1711
 - d. Martha b. 5 July 1714
 - e. Abraham b. 8 March 1716
 - f. Elisabeth b. 21 April 1722
 - g. Judith b. 20 Aug. 1724

3. Edward Bond b. 4 March 1688/9, Beverly, Mass.

- III. Edward Bond b. 4 March 1688/89 at Beverly, Mass. He m. Elizabeth Coy 26 January 1709/10 at Beverly, Mass. Elizabeth was b. ca. 1690 in Wenham, Massachusetts, dau. of John and Elizabeth (Edwards) Coy. She was still living on 4 February 1742/3. No record of either of their deaths have been found. "The last mention of him [i.e. Edward Bond] is on 27 March 1753 when he deeded land in Leicester to his son John." (Rudy 1983, p. 20).

Edward Bond and his wife Elizabeth owned the covenant and had a child baptised in the Beverly church on 1 August 1714 (Essex Institute Historical Collections, 5[1863]:276). They lived in Beverly until about 28 July 1739 when Edward Bond sold his ten-acre farm in Beverly to Andrew Woodbury of Boston for the sum of 700 pounds (Essex Deeds,

5/13/25, 5:20 PM

The descendants of John Bond, 1661, of Beverly, Massachusetts ; with allied families Anthony, Burton, Estes, Harker Horton, Scamp, Nott, Sprague and Thurber

Share

Print or Download files

Show/Hide information boxes