1. Dorothy, born Sept., 1750, bapt. Dec. 23, 1750, in Windham.
2. David, born Jan. 31, 1752, bapt. Apr. 5, 1752, in Windham.
3. Jonathan, born Nov. 25, 1756, in Gorham. p553
4. Bethia, born ———, 1758; m. Prince Hamblen, Mar. 22, 1781.

p550 John, son of Samuel and Bethia (Spear) Webb, married, in 1753, Elizabeth, daughter of Benjamin and Amy (Pride) Larabee. They settled on a farm near "Pride's Bridge" (now Riverton), where their farm buildings, in a dilapidated condition, stood on the westerly side of the Bridgton Road, since the writer's recollection. Mrs. Webb died in 1827. The date of his death I have not ascertained. They had children, as follows:

1. John, Jr., born May 19, 1754. p555
2. Anna.
3. Betsey.
4. Abigail, m. Ebenezer Cross of Portland.
5. Mary, m. Green Hannaford of Cape Elizabeth.
6. William, m. ——— Moody; was a sea captain.
7. Susan.

There were also two sons, Benjamin, who was married, but left no children; he lived on the ancestral farm; and Thomas, who died unmarried.

p550 Ezekiel, son of Samuel and Bethia (Spear) Webb, was married and left one daughter. He was a master mariner, and lived on Cape Cod, but I am not able to give any further facts in regard to him.

p40 p550 p85 Seth, son of Samuel and Bethia (Spear) Webb, married, Nov. ———, 1759, Hannah, daughter of Ephraim and Mehitabel (Cutter) Winship. On Sept. 21, 1750, he was taken captive by the Indians on his father's farm (Home Lot No. 23). From a letter written by Capt. Thomas Chute to Col. or Maj. Freeman of Falmouth, it appears that Mr. Webb and his son, Seth, were engaged in building fence, and, having finished their work and returned to the house, they discovered that they had left the
